GAMES
ASSOCIATION

RECOGNISED
BY THE IOC

Preamble:

With over 3,000 athletes the Winter World Masters Games 2020 (WWMG) are the biggest winter multi-sports event for athletes over 30* years of age. It is a unique chance for recreational sportspersons to compete with former professional sportsmen and -women. WWMG supports the togetherness between athletes through common sports activities, entertainment and cultural events. (*this may differ for the various sports)

Organizer:

The Winter World Masters Games will take place from 10-19 January 2020 in Innsbruck and Tyrol and will be organised by Innsbruck-Tirol Sports GmbH.

Competition Management:

Sports management: Kitzbühel Curling Club

Ice Technician: Chris Noble

Administrative Management Curling: Veronika Huber

Venue

The Curling competition will take place at the Sportpark Kitzbühel, located near the city center of the famous winter sports destination. Six (6) sheets of ice will be installed in the ice arena for the period of the Winter World Masters Games. Beside Curling, some Ski Jumping events will also take place in Kitzbühel. The venue here is the HS 42 Schattberg ski-jump.
