

World's Greatest Winter Sport Festival for 30+ Year Olds

The winter games for amateur athletes are coming to Innsbruck!

Olympic spirit for everyone

From 10 to 19 January 2020, Innsbruck will be hosting the third Winter World Masters Games. The WWMG 2020 offer amateur sports enthusiasts aged 30+ the unique opportunity to take part in international sporting events. More than 3,000 athletes from over 50 nations will gather in Innsbruck to compete for medals in 12 disciplines according to the motto "spirit together". The sports programme consists of: Alpine Skiing, Ski Jumping & Nordic Combined, Ski Mountaineering, Biathlon, Cross-Country Skiing, Ski Orienteering, Figure Skating, Speed Skating, Short Track, Ice Hockey and Curling.

Everyone can be part

The WWMG are not aimed at elite competitors, they are open to sports lovers of all performance levels, from hobby athletes to ambitious amateurs. The only qualification criteria for taking part is that you have to meet the minimum age requirement. This multisport festival offers ten days of Olympic vibes with top-class competitions and state-of-the-art venues in stunning mountain surroundings.

Register your team

Want to be part of this unique winter sports spectacle? Then save one of the last starting spots on our website. Registration is possible until the end of November. Some sports are already sold out. Over 2.800 athletes from 55 nations are already registered.

More than sport

This multisport festival with an Olympic vibe will offer plenty of opportunities to spend time together. The central meeting place is the Masters Village in Maria-Theresien street in the heart of the city. It is here that athletes, friends, guests and locals will gather to enjoy victory ceremonies, culinary highlights and side events. The Masters Village will open doors with the Opening Ceremony and athletes' parade on Saturday 11.01.2020 from 6 p.m.

Host City Innsbruck

Innsbruck is located in the heart of the Alps and boasts a unique charm. The narrow medieval streets in the oldtown are set against a stunning alpine backdrop. Highlights in the city centre include the Golden Roof, Innsbruck's most famous attraction, and the Imperial Palace. As well as being a popular tourist destination, Innsbruck also boasts a rich sporting tradition. It has played host to Olympic Games on three occasions – a record.

Get involved as a Volunteer

WWMG volunteers will get the opportunity to take a unique look behind the scenes of a major international sports event while at the same time meeting new people and becoming part of the volunteer team tirol. Sounds like your kind of thing? Sign up now at www.innsbruck2020.com/volunteers_en
